RESPONSE from CRC back to ACoD:

The 2018 ACoD directed the Constitutional Revision Committee and Rules Evaluation Committee to change the process to fully recognize the breeds in the Limited Stake.

In December, the Board directed the Constitutional Revision Committee to revise Article X of the constitution to have new breeds, once accepted by the Board of Directors, to begin the process towards full recognition in Provisional status. This would eliminate Limited status. The breeds currently competing in Limited status would then move to Provisional Status.

CRC, at this time, is unable to write a constitutional amendment that we think is realistic without further consultation.
