COURSING AND SOCIAL NOTES

First aid supplies will be available at the field. There is an animal emergency clinic 25 minutes away:

WestVet Boise
5024 W Chinden Blvd (208) 375-1600

Motor homes and camping are welcome on the field, but this is a working ranch, so please keep the noise to a minimum, pack out your trash, and ensure that any fires are contained.

We will have coffee and donuts on the field each morning, and bottled drinking water will be available throughout the day. (A donation for these items is appreciated.) Sorry, only a limited amount of shade will be provided, primarily for use by the judges and field committee.

The field will be set up for practice runs (@ two runs for $5) when there is time available, and we will have a judges available for certification runs at $10 per hound certifying. Contact Emily or Kaylie the week before the trial if you have questions. SISFA will NOT provide by-dogs, so please make sure you have a dog to certify with. There will be no certification runs during the weekend except as approved by the Field Chairman or Trial Secretary, per Judges' availability. Absolutely NO certification runs will be done during the trial! Practice runs during the weekend will only be done if there are volunteers for field crew (including lure operator) and ONLY if there is time after the field has been reset. ALL equipment MUST be left in an operable state!

Please remember the entry for all first-time-entered dogs must include a copy of their current registration, and either a hound certification or a certification waiver. A copy of current registration is also required if ownership has changed since a dog's last entry. Entries cannot (and will not) be accepted without this!

One last reminder: the weather in Idaho is always unpredictable. In early November it is typically clear and sunny, with crisp mornings and cool afternoons. Nevertheless, don't forget your sunscreen, polar fleece, and rain gear.
